Foxen 2012 Cabernet Sauvignon
Vogelzang Vyd

Saturated ruby. Blackberry, cassis, peppery spices and a touch of pipe tobacco on the perfumed nose. Nicely concentrated and seamless, displaying a smoky quality to its dark berry, mocha and vanilla flavors. Finishes with smooth, harmonious tannins and excellent fruit-driven persistence. Showing plenty of complexity for such a young wine but I'd hold onto it for another four or five years, at a minimum. -- Josh Reynolds
